Welcome

At the Easter Vigil this year we welcomed with great joy eleven new members into the Catholic Church.

Fully Initiated:

Brandon Bregman, Brittany Bubela,
Charlie Koontz, Gabriela Pirralho

Received Into Full Communion:

Zander Guckian, Ellis Jacoby, Michelle Lupomech,
Taylor May, Cheryl Motta, John Roof,
Hannah Moore Shipley

We thank God for each one of them and pray that they continue growing in discipleship, in their personal encounter with Christ, and in their membership of our Parish faith community. A special word of gratitude to those who journeyed with them in this process: their sponsors, their families and all who supported them, including the RCIA team; Laura Macom, Dos Crow, Shannon Crow, Danielle Flink, James Flink, Leslie Link, Nathan Link, Jerry Martinez, Donna McElroy, Maria Elena Palacios, Diane Salvador, Dalton Shults & Robert Steele.

RCIA will continue to meet for the next few weeks in a process known as Mystagogia, a time to deepen our understanding of the Easter mysteries we have just celebrated and to become more a part of our parish community.

Whoever keeps his word, the love of God is truly perfected in him.

1 John 2:5

Peter seems to be pretty tough with his listeners in the first reading. He practically says they handed Jesus over, denied him before Pilate, asked for a murderer to be released in his place, and put Jesus to death. They must have thought they were doomed. But then he tells them that God had planned all this long ago. So is he saying Jesus' death is their fault, or just fate?

The answer of course is that it's everyone's fault. We deny Jesus when we choose to be selfish instead of loving. We crucify Jesus when we follow the crowd instead of following the Lord. It is only "fate" in the sense that our sins needed to be forgiven and God plan's for salvation was through Jesus' death and resurrection. There were sinners long before Jesus' time and God knew there would be sinners after that. Jesus rose from the dead to show that God's forgiveness raises us up from guilt to a new life.

So Peter wasn't laying a guilt trip on the listeners: this is good news. God planned all this to show how much he loved us. Our response should be one of joy that we are forgiven because of that love. All we have to do is tell God we are sorry, mean it, and start living our response of love. Sins may be our fault, but Love is our fate.

Tom Schmidt.

First Corinthians

We will read the first letter that Paul wrote to the church in corinth. The conflicts of the early Christians in corinth were in many ways similar to our struggles today as Christians.

They, too, witnessed division, scandal, immorality, persecution and other trials. Paul's message to the Corinthians offers much needed wisdom for our own times.
In this 11 week study, we will learn how Paul addresses divisions within the church, emphasizes the importance of unity among Church members and introduces the Corinthians to God's greatest gift – the Eucharist.

1 Corinthians 1-5

All are welcome to join these free sessions. Bring your Bible and writing material. Study questions will be provided each week.
