Let us rejoice
AND BE GLAD

The Empty Tomb Changed the World

The significance of the empty tomb cannot be overstated. It is the foundation of our faith and the source of our hope. As Catholics, our actions would be in vain if the tomb was not empty. But it was, and this is what gives our faith its purpose and our hope its substance. We are called to live out this faith and pass it on to others, just as previous generations have done for over two thousand years.

As Catholics, Easter is not a one-day event but a life-changing reality that transforms our perspective and gives us hope to be with the Lord for all eternity. Our faith is not fantasy but reality, a reality that we get to live and share with our family and those we interact with on a daily basis. The Church affirms this reality by inviting us to celebrate the Octave of Easter (8 days ending on Divine Mercy Sunday) and the Easter Season (50 days ending on Pentecost).

As we read in the Gospel, Mary Magdalene was the first to witness the empty tomb, the first to enter into it. St. Thomas Aquinas called her the "Apostle of the Apostles." Imagine sharing the Good News of Jesus' Resurrection with His very own followers!

This Easter, may we worship, thank the Lord, celebrate, and be filled with the joy of Jesus, just like the first witnesses of His resurrection did. May the powerful truth of this greatest of Feasts pour into the ordinary moments of our lives and sanctify them. The details of how we live the faith matter, for from our heart spills out our love, belief, and faith in Jesus, which we then share with our family, friends and the greater community.

The tomb is empty, just as He said!

Have a blessed and joyful Easter!

Emily Jaminet

Easter and the Octave

Easter is the highest day of the Church year, the "Feast of feasts," the "Solemnity of solemnities," and the "Great Sunday." The Church celebrates the risen Christ for eight days, the Octave of Easter, ending with Divine Mercy Sunday. Holy Mass each day during the octave is another Easter; the Alleluia verse throughout the week is "This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it. Alleluia." During the Easter season, as we celebrate the resurrection of Jesus with special devotion, we also focus on our hope beyond this world, our hope for eternal life.
