SEASON FIVE LIFT UP YOUR HEARTS

Worship is one of the most fundamental aspects of what it means to be Christian. All of creation was made to worship, and we, as humans, have an intimate connection to the call to praise, revere, and venerate. It is what we were made for. This season, dive deep into not only the practical aspects of worship, but more importantly, recenter your deep longing to pour out your heart fully to the Lord. Make no mistake: authentic worship is not always easy. However, the fruit it bears is unlike anything we can experience in this world.

GIFTS OF GRACE

HAND-CRAFTED GIFT MINISTRY

Everyone is invited to join us every First Thursday of the month at 11am in the St. Joseph Room to share your sewing, knitting, or crocheting skills to provide hand-crafted gifts of baptismal bibs, new baby blankets or prayer shawls to provide joy and comfort to our parishioners and to the young women at the Guadalupe & Seton Homes.

Join us on the 2nd & 4th Thursday of the month
6:30 to 8:00 pm
in Our Lady of Knock Classroom.

This event is open to anyone at any stage of their grief journey, whether you are dealing with a recent loss or reflecting on past experiences. We aim to create an environment where mutual support helps us heal together.

We look forward to walking alongside you on this path toward healing.

Welcoming a

A Short Summary of Archbishop Gustavo's Pastoral Letter "We Will Come to You"

Dear Parishioners,

As summer comes to a close, I hope you are ready to recommit yourselves wholeheartedly to God's work of bringing the Good News to others. Our church renewal project continues to progress on schedule, and I would like to express my sincere gratitude for your prayers, financial support, and generous assistance in so many other ways.

I am writing today to bring to your attention the most recent pastoral letter of Archbishop Gustavo García-Siller, our chief shepherd. The letter, which has received considerable attention in both print and social media, is an important invitation for all of us to reflect on our Christian responsibility toward our brothers and sisters who are migrants.

On August 3, 2026, at San Fernando Cathedral, coinciding with the 100th anniversary of San Antonio's elevation to a metropolitan archdiocese, Archbishop Gustavo issued his pastoral letter, "We Will Come to You: United in Solidarity with Our Brothers and Sisters in Migration."

The "we" in the title is the Church—and that includes the community of Our Lady of Grace. In many ways, "We will come to you" is a simple yet powerful summary of Catholic Social Teaching: we are called not merely to speak about those who suffer, but to draw near to them, accompany them, and stand with them.

The pastoral letter is rooted in Sacred Scripture, the teachings of the Church, human-rights reports, and the archbishop's own experiences visiting detention centers throughout the archdiocese. Like a shepherd who "smells of the sheep," Archbishop Gustavo speaks from personal encounter and expresses deep concern for families experiencing suffering and uncertainty amid recent immigration enforcement measures.

He warns that current immigration policies—including the use of the Alien Enemies Act of 1798, the construction of large detention facilities, and the removal of certain protections for churches—have created what he describes as a "constant, grinding anxiety." This fear has led some immigrant families to avoid receiving the sacraments, seeking medical care, and even carrying out basic daily errands.

Archbishop Gustavo also reminds us that "the movement of peoples" is "not an interruption of God's plan but part of the very fabric of salvation." His message challenges us to see every person not first through the lens of immigration status, but through the eyes of faith—as a brother or sister created in the image and likeness of God.

The Four Pillars of the Pastoral Letter

- Human Dignity – Every person bears the image of God and possesses an inviolable dignity. That dignity "does not hinge on a passport, a visa, or a work permit."
- Encounter with Christ – To welcome and accompany migrants is to encounter Christ Himself. The migrant can become a visible sign of God's presence among us.
- A Church That Goes Forth – Our parishes and families are called to go beyond our comfort zones and accompany those in need. This includes opportunities for "Know Your Rights" formation and ministry with detained migrants.
- The Common Good – Archbishop Gustavo appeals to civic leaders to protect human dignity, promote family unity, and uphold due process while working for the common good of all.

In conclusion, the pastoral letter calls each of us to moral discernment, pastoral accompaniment, and a courageous response to injustice. It reminds us that our Christian faith calls us to see Christ in those who are vulnerable and to respond with compassion, courage, and love.

I encourage you to take some time to read and prayerfully reflect on the archbishop's letter. The full text in English and Spanish, along with a reflection guide and video, is available on the Archdiocese of San Antonio's website.

May we continue to be a parish community that does not simply wait for those in need to come to us, but is willing to "go forth" and come to them.

As always,
Fr. Abe
