LIFT UP YOUR HEARTS

THIS WEEK'S SESSION

Offer It Up: Worship is both a sacrifice and a response to the greatness of God, and it extends into every part of daily life. Everything we experience: joys, struggles, responsibilities, and trials, can be freely offered to God as an act of worship. When we truly "offer it up," ordinary and difficult moments become a redeeming sacrifice that brings deeper life, joy, and peace.

"Little Saints, Great Faith:

Lessons in Holiness from the Children of Fatima"

The Miracle of the Sun at Fatima, Portugal, happened on October 13, 1917, nearly 109 years ago, yet the message of Our Lady of Fatima resounds today. When the three children of Fatima fame are thought of, it is usually only the eldest, Lucia - that is, Lucia de Jesus dos Santos - whose name people remember. However, Lucia's cousins, Francisco and Jacinta Marto, are equally important to the story of Our Lady of Fatima. In fact, they, being the youngest non-martyred persons to be canonized saints by the Catholic Church, and having demonstrated remarkable faith and courage during their very short lives, have much to teach us. Join us to learn about and be inspired by these amazing role models of faith.
